Property Description: 207 Montague Street is a tall, three-storey, hip-roofed house with Italianate features located on the north side slope of Montague Street, facing the Lunenburg Shipyards and the harbour in Lunenburg, NS. 207 Montague Street is valued as an example of an architectural style that was common in late-Victorian Lunenburg. The house was built before 1890 for Rebecca Selig, the widow of a well known local sea captain. Source: Heritage Designation File 66400-40-24, Town of Lunenburg.
